

1. Rhaphidostichum bunodicarpum (C. Müll.) Fleisch. xi gou wei xian

Musci Buitenzorg 4: 1309. 1923. Hypnum bunodicarpum C. Müll., Bot. Jahrb. Syst. 5: 85. 1883. Type: Lavongai.

Plants yellowish green, glossy. Stems elongate, prostrate, densely branched; branches ascending, up to 5 mm long, less than 2 mm with leaves. Leaves imbricate to erect-spreading, ovate-lanceolate, up to 2 mm × 0.5 mm, constricted into a long acuminate apex, concave; margins entire, weakly serrulate at apex; leaf cells linear or fusiform, 40–60 μm × 3.0–4.5 μm, smooth, becoming shorter and pitted near base; alar cells inflated, thin-walled.